John Jay Lecture - The Forest Charter and Magna Carta: Evolving Human Rights in Nature

March 15, 2016 6:15 pm-8:30 pm

Nicholas A. Robinson, The Forest Charter and Magna Carta: Evolving Human Rights in Nature

The Forest Charter was the vehicle through which the 800-year-old Magna Carta was kept effective, restraining the power of kings to collect from their subjects the funds needed to pay for wars. It also created the first lasting principles for negotiating competing claims on the natural world - a "rule of law for nature." Nicholas Robinson has been a leader in the field of Environmental Law since its birth, and is currently University Professor for the Environment at Pace Law School and Co-Director of its Global Center for Environmental Legal Studies, and an Adjunct Professor at the Yale School of Forestry & Environmental Studies.

All lectures take place in the Iselin Wing at John Jay Homestead. Registration and refreshments begin at 6:15 pm. Lectures begin at 7 pm. $20 for members, $25 for non-members. Limited free seating is available for students. Add to Cart

Planning the Organic Vegetable Garden*, Garden Class

A successful organic garden takes both planning and work. Take advantage of the "off-season" and use this time to get your garden plans underway. Bring your current garden plan for further development, or learn the process of creating one during class. Join horticulturist and seed conservationist Shanyn Siegel as she takes you through an entire gardening season with interactive classes designed to help you hone—or discover—your garden skills. Classes explore every topic a vegetable gardener might be interested in and offer practical advice on how to easily maintain a bountiful kitchen garden. Classes are held in the Glass Porch of John Jay's Bedford House. Advance registration required; $35 per class, discounts for multiple-class or early registration. Katonah Museum of Art, Aaron Curry - UGLY MESS, on South Lawn, to - June 19, 2016, View images from this exhibition Los Angeles-based artist Aaron Curry fuses his interests in the sculptures of Modernist artists such as Pablo Picasso, Henry Moore, and Alexander Calder with his personal experiences of 1980's mass media, and skating and graffiti culture. Composed of intersecting planes of aluminum painted with bright colors in a cartoon-like manner, UGLY MESS is an abstract, surreal sculpture that operates on the boundaries between Modern and contemporary, painting and sculpture, the geometric and figuration. Organized by Katonah Museum of Art Associate Curator, Elizabeth Rooklidge.

The Nest, an exhibition of art in nature. Exhibition runs from March 6 – June 19. The reception will include a tour with the curator and artists at 5pm. The exhibition will be a provocative display incorporating contemporary art, relics from the natural world, and items of material culture, providing an unexpected lens through which to observe the fascinating parallels between human and animal behavior, and raising timely questions about the survival of the birds and their habitats in our increasingly fragile ecological world.

Authentic bird's nests from the Yale Peabody Museum of Natural History collection will be on view alongside works by Sharon Beals, Sanford Biggers, Dove Bradshaw, Björn Braun, John Burtle, Walton Ford, Shiela Hale, Fiona Hall, Porky Hefer, Nina Katchadourian, Louise Lawler, Judy Pfaff, James Prosek, Hunt Slonem, Kiki Smith, Andreas Sterzing, Paul Villinski, and David Wojnarowicz, as well as a selection of Pre-Columbian feathered textiles.
