Caramoor, Larry Campbell and Teresa Williams – with Special Guest Marco Benevento, 8:00pm. Award winning multi-instrumentalist Larry Campbell and powerhouse vocalist Teresa Williams return to Caramoor this summer with a special show featuring their friend and collaborator, keyboardist Marco Benevento. We had to invite them back after their crowd pleasing, joyous performance at our 2015 American Roots Music Festival! Steeped in the sounds of the Delta blues, gospel, Alabama soul, Nashville country, traditional folk, and classic rock music, this married musical duo has been winning over fans with their palpable chemistry and talent. After years of experience playing with others (including Bob Dylan, Paul Simon, Emmylou Harris, Levon Helm, and Phil Lesh), and fresh off their tour with Jackson Brown, Larry and Teresa—together with special guest Marco Benevento (a prolific pianist, songwriter, and producer known for his forays in experimental jazz), and bandmates Jeff Hill and Justin Guip—weave an eclectic mix of influences and textures to create a memorable and uplifting music experience. Pricing, tickets, and more information at <https://www.caramoor.org/events/larry-campbell-teresa-williams/>.

Caramoor, Fidelio by Ludwig van Beethoven, Pre-Opera Events start at 1:00pm, 4:00pm is Showtime. Caramoor welcomes Pablo Heras-Casado, principal conductor of Orchestra of St. Luke's, in his first turn at the Bel Canto opera stage to present this amazing opera. Beethoven's Fidelio—the master's only opera—explores themes common to his "middle period": of personal sacrifice, of heroism, and of delayed triumph. The story follows the efforts of a determined wife in disguise (soprano Elza van den Heever), the struggles of her imprisoned political-activist-husband (tenor Paul Groves), and a host of players from the reigning municipality who seek to keep him in chains. Fidelio was the fruit of Beethoven's decade-long struggle to bend operatic forms to his personal vision. Its first version, Leonore, had met with mixed success in 1805. The revision, debuting in the same season as Rossini's Aureliano, became an instant classic, and is now a cornerstone of the repertory. Its stunning synthesis of German and Italian operatic traditions with Beethoven's unique force and nobility has challenged the greatest interpreters for two centuries, revealing new secrets in each generation. Pricing, tickets, and more information at <https://www.caramoor.org/events/fidelio-by-beethoven/>.

Caramoor, Cécile McLorin Salvant and The Aaron Diehl Trio, Saturday August 6 8:00pm. Winner of Best Jazz Vocal Album in this year's crop of Grammy hopefuls for her second major release, For One To Love, Cécile McLorin Salvant continues to steal headlines and hearts. Returning for a third consecutive year to Caramoor's summer stages, Salvant is a vocal force of nature à la Sarah Vaughan, Billie Holiday, or Ella Fitzgerald, having co-headlined stages with Wynton Marsalis and the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra and commanded audiences at the Newport Jazz Festival and beyond. Drawing on a wide array of influences – her Miami upbringing, her father's Haitian origins, classical voice and piano training, taboo subjects in traditional jazz music – Salvant's "aesthetic idiosyncrasies immediately mark her apart" (NPR) and make for intimate, powerful performances. Pricing, tickets, and more information at <https://www.caramoor.org/events/cecile-mclorin-salvant-160806/>.

Katonah Museum of Art

Summer Exhibit: OnSite Katonah, July 10 – October 2. OnSite Katonah presents experimental, site-specific installations created in response to the Katonah Museum of Art's distinctive landscape, architecture, and history. With projects boldly immersive and keenly subtle, artists investigate and reimagine every facet of the KMA's location. Installations occupy the light-filled Sally and Volney Righter and Mary L. Beitzel Galleries; the Marilyn M. Simpson Sculpture

Garden, with its towering Norwegian spruce trees; and the sloping greens of the Front and South lawns. These artistic interventions into our site transform the Museum's physical space— which so deeply impacts the KMA's institutional identity— into a platform for creative experimentation. Artists include Grimanesa Amoros, Amy Brener, MaDora Frey, Keiran Brennan Hinton, Caitlin Masley, Caleb Nussear, Jason Peters, and Rachel Mica Weiss. More information at <http://www.katonahmuseum.org/exhibitions/upcoming/>.

Egg by Victoria Fu, July 10 – October 2. Los Angeles-based artist Victoria Fu employs analogue and digital techniques to explore the impact of virtual aesthetics on the everyday human experience. While Fu typically works in film, light-projection, and photography, for the KMA she will create a site-specific building wrap, covering the Museum's front façade with one of her enigmatic, unexpected images. Fu's work was featured in the 2014 Whitney Biennial and she is a recipient of the prestigious 2015 Guggenheim Foundation Fellowship. Egg will mark the artist's first solo project on such a monumental scale. More information at <http://www.katonahmuseum.org/exhibitions/upcoming/>.

KMA Creativity Club: Summer Series, Thursdays July 21 and 28 and August 4 and 11 10:00am-2:00pm. Join the KMA Creativity Club this summer, a series of day-long, art-making workshops provides an opportunity for artistic-minded kids to hang out together, share ideas, and create unique works of art. Hands-on projects range from creating a group mural, to building a large-scale outdoor sculpture installation, and more. Each week will introduce new materials and techniques for students to use in challenging and fun projects. Pre-paid registration required. Two sections: Ages 6-9, and 10-14. $50 members, $60 non-members for each class. Discounts provided for multiple workshops or siblings. Please bring lunch! Attend individual dates or the full series. For questions or more information, please contact madasko@katonahmuseum.org, or call (914) 232-9555 ext. 2969 or visit <http://www.katonahmuseum.org/programs-and-events/KMACreativityClub16/> to see a list and explanation of each workshop.

August 4: Repurpose and Glow – Plastic and light are our materials for this exciting workshop. We will build with recycled and found plastic and infuse them with a variety of lights and glow-in-the-dark materials. The results will surprise us all!

August 11: Ugly Mess – Inspired by the sculpture entitled Ugly Mess and others found around the campus, design and create a new large-scale artwork for the Museum's front lawn or sculpture garden.

Westchester Land Trust, Sugar Hill Farm Volunteer Opportunity, Tuesday August 9 and 23 10:00am-2:00pm. Rain or shine. Sugar Hill Farm is located at 403 Harris Road, Bedford Hills, NY 10507. As one of Food Bank for Westchester's five Food Growing Program farm sites, Westchester Land Trust's half-acre Sugar Hill Farm headquarters supplies much needed fresh produce to area food pantries and soup kitchens. In 2015, our Sugar Hill Farm harvest totaled nearly 1,700 pounds of vegetables – or the equivalent of 16,866 servings. It's no secret that volunteers are an essential part of the program's success. From planting seedlings in the spring to weeding, tending, and harvesting crops all summer and into the fall, our volunteers make it happen! More information at http://westchesterlandtrust.org/?page_id=427.

John Jay Homestead, Teaching Garden - Family Gardening Series. Roots: how plants eat and drink. Do plants eat?? Yes- and we will investigate how they do it as we learn about roots. We talk about the best ways to prepare our soil and then we'll plant strawberry plants, beans and more. Can people eat roots? Sure! We will taste potatoes, onions and carrots. There are two ways to participate in this new program co-sponsored by InterGenerate: 1. For families who want to attend classes only, there are two sessions of 6 workshops each: Spring/Summer (5/15, 5/22, 6/5, 6/12, 6/26, 7/10) and Summer/Fall (7/24, 8/7, 8/21, 8/28, 9/11, 9/25). $150/family per session; $215/family for the entire series. 2. For families who want to attend the entire series of workshops and commit to working in the Teaching Garden in return for a share of the produce each week. $200/family. For registration and program information visit <http://www.intergenerate.net/teaching-garden.html>
