Dear Mr. Kemble:

The Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) New York Division has reviewed the information submitted with your October 12, 2016 letter requesting a change in the functional classification of Cherry Street and Huntville Road, located within the Town of Bedford in Westchester County. The documentation submitted justifies the change of functional classification of Cherry Street from an Urban Minor Arterial to an Urban Major Collector and for the change of functional classification of Huntville Road from an Urban Minor Arterial to an Urban Major Collector.

Your request to change the functional classification of Cherry Street and Huntville Road, located in Westchester County, from Urban Minor Arterials to Urban Major Collectors has been approved.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me directly at 518-431-8863.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Fischer
Transportation Specialist
